Savannah, Chatham County, Georgia
119 E. Charlton St.

Owner: Mrs. J. Randolph Anderson.

Date of Erection: 1848.

Architect and Builder:

Present Condition: Good.

Number of Stories: Two story and basement.

Materials of Construction: Foundation brick stuccoed.

Exterior walls brick.

Other Existing Records: Garden History of Georgia, page 24.

Additional Data: The simple design of this house with the side porch entrance is similar to houses often seen in The Barbadoes. A garden of formal plan lies to the East surrounded with a brick wall. This is the oldest garden in Savannah retaining its original plan and planting.

The original builder was William Battersby, an Englishman. After Mr. Battersby's death the house was occupied by Julian Hartridge until purchased about 1880 by Joseph John Wilder. His daughter, Mrs. J. Randolph Anderson, now owns and occupies the property.
